The magnificent peal of bells carried by the famous Dunbars, who appear at the Barre opera house next Saturday evening, is without doubt the finest in existence. They were made in England a couple of years ago under the personal supervision of the Dunbar brothers and have been the source of wonder to about one million listeners who have attended this company's concerts in America and Europe. They have been asked often if there was not an organ playing with them, so sustained and beautiful does the blended tone float from them, and many wonder if they are really bells. The entire peal, when packed in huge trunks, weighs about 1,500 pounds, there being about 200 bells. Go to Kendrick's for your tickets.

Table Linens

Table Linens at our sale prices will not be duplicated again for at least another year, and we hope not then, for it means too much of a sacrifice on our part, just to reduce stock.

All Towels at a saving price. We call your attention to our 10c Huck Towels, now at 7 1-2c each; also the Turkish Towels at 9c each.

We have just three Benson Bath Robe Blankets in blue, that were $2.50, now to close at $1.75 each.

We want to call your attention to Scotch Ginghams that were 25c and 35c in a good assortment of styles and at the prices now should have been sold out long ago. Price now only 15c per yard. These are really one of the very best bargains in our whole sale and you will say so, just as soon as you stop to think just how cheap they really are.

30c Suiting Linens at 25c are the very same goods that you will want later at their value, 30c.
